WORKSHOPS

The Center for Teaching & Learning hosted workshops this fall to assist faculty in enhancing their professional practice. Some of those workshops included: Clarification of Pre-tenure, and Promotion and Tenure guidelines; Strategies for engaging 1st generation college students; Clarification of USG initiatives such as Complete College Georgia and Go-back move-ahead; and strategies for implementing interactive activities in online teaching. Additional engaging sessions in spring 2015!

CELEBRATION OF SCHOLARSHIP 2014

Celebration of Scholarship 2014 was a huge success! This event is held each fall to recognize outstanding scholarship from the previous academic year. Scholars from a number of academic disciplines are honored for their excellent accomplishments in teaching, research, and service. Winners for 2013-2014 academic year were: Dr. Young Park, Outstanding Research Scholar in Stem Disciplines, Dr. Edward Demenchonok, Outstanding Research Scholar in Social Sciences & Humanities discipline, Dr. Nirmal Joshee, Research Excellence in STEM award, and Dr. Jianmin Zhu, Excellence in Teaching Award. We look forward to hearing about the exciting activities faculty are involved in during 2014-2015 academic year and to honoring a new class of candidates next fall.
