I. Policy Title

EU General Data Protection Regulation Compliance Policy

II. Policy Purpose and Statement

Lawful Basis for Collecting or Processing Personal Data:
FVSU has a lawful basis to collect and process personal data. FVSU's collection and processing of personal data will generally fall under the following categories (this is a non-exclusive list):

a. Processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by FVSU or by a third-party.
b. Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract.
c. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which FVSU is subject.
d. The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her special categories of sensitive personal data for one or more specific purposes.

III. Policy Application and Effective Date

a. This policy applies to all external and internal FVSU Community.
b. This policy is effective August 16, 2018.

IV. Definitions

Collect or Process Data

Collection, storage, recording, organizing, structuring, adaptation or alteration, consultation, use, retrieval, disclosure by transmission/dissemination or otherwise making data available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction of personal data, whether or not by automated means.

Consent of the data subject means any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject's wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her.

Under the GDPR:

a. Consent must be a demonstrable, clear affirmative action.
b. Consent can be withdrawn by the data subject at any time and must be as easy to withdraw consent as it is to give consent.
c. Consent cannot be silence, a pre-ticked box or inaction.
d. Consent should not be regarded as freely given if the data subject has no genuine or free choice or is unable to refuse or withdraw consent without detriment.
e. Request for consent must be presented clearly and in plain language.
f. Maintain a record regarding how and when consent was given.
Controller
The natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.

FVSU Unit
A FVSU college, office or department.

Identified or Identifiable Person
An identified or identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, psychological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that person.

Examples of identifiers include but are not limited to: name, photo, email address, identification number such as FVSU ID# or Account#, user ID, physical address or other location data, Internet protocol (IP) address or other online identifier

Processing of personal data shall be lawful only if and to the extent that at least one of the following applies:

a. The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes;
b. Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;
c. Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;
d. Processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person;
e. Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;
f. Processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party.

Legitimate Interest
Processing of personal data is lawful if such processing is necessary for the legitimate business purposes of the data controller/processor, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data.

Personal Data Processor
A natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body who processes personal data on behalf of the controller.

Special categories of sensitive personal data that require consent by the data subject before collecting or processing are:

a. Racial or ethnic origin
b. Political opinions
c. Religious or philosophical beliefs
d. Trade union membership
e. Genetic, biometric data for the purposes of uniquely identifying a natural person
f. Health data
g. Data concerning a person's sex life or sexual orientation Withdrawal of Consent FVSU must have a process for individuals who request to withdraw their consent.

V. Policy

Overview

The European Union has passed a data privacy regulation that is applicable throughout the entire European Union (“EU”), and to those who collect personal data about people in the EU. The European Union General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) imposes obligations on entities, like Fort Valley State University (“FVSU” or the “University”), that collect or process personal data about people in the EU. The GDPR applies to personal data collected or processed about anyone located in the EU, regardless of whether they are a citizen or permanent resident of an EU country.

In order for FVSU to educate its foreign and domestic students, both in class and online, and engage in world class research, it is sometimes necessary to collect, process, use, and/or maintain the personal data of its students, employees, applicants, research subjects, and others involved in its educational and research programs. FVSU takes seriously its duty to protect the personal data it collects or processes. In addition to FVSU’s overall data protection program, FVSU must make sure it complies with the dictates of the GDPR. Among other things, the GDPR requires FVSU to:

a. be transparent about the personal data it collects or processes and the uses of any personal data
b. keep track of all uses and disclosures it makes of personal data
c. appropriately secure personal data

This policy describes FVSU’s data protection strategy to comply with the GDPR.

Data Protection & Governance

FVSU will protect all personal data and special categories of sensitive personal data that it collects or processes for a lawful basis. Any personal data and special categories of sensitive personal data collected or processed by FVSU shall be:

a. Processed lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner
b. Collected for specified, explicit, and legitimate purposes, and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes
c. Limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are collected and processed
d. Accurate, kept up to date and properly secured
e. Retained only as long as necessary and in accordance with the University System of Georgia Board of Regents USG-BOR Records Retention Schedules.

Individual Rights

Individual data subjects covered by this policy will be afforded the following rights:

a. information about the controller collecting the data
b. the data protection officer contact information (if assigned)
c. the purposes and lawful basis of the data collection/processing
d. recipients of the personal data

Cookies

Cookies are files that many websites transfer to users' web browsers to enable the site to deliver personalized services or to provide persistent authentication. The information contained in a cookie typically includes information collected automatically by the web server and/or information provided voluntarily by the user. Our website uses persistent cookies in conjunction with a third-party technology partner to analyze search engine usage and web traffic patterns. This information is used in the aggregate to monitor and enhance our web pages. It is not used to track the usage patterns of individual users.

Security

Our information security officer within our Information Technology Department is committed to ensuring the security of your information. We have put in place reasonable physical, technical and administrative safeguards designed to prevent unauthorized access to or use of the information collected online.

Sharing your information

We will not share your information with third parties except:

a) as required by law;
b) as necessary to protect University interests;
c) as necessary to further University research efforts pursuant to approvals from appropriate data stewards and the IRB, and/or
d) with service providers acting on our behalf who have agreed to protect the confidentiality of the data.
