Dear School Counselor:

Our organization is eager to identify a deserving high school student who is eligible to receive our Mamie Miller Memorial scholarship award. This scholarship honors the memory of Mrs. Mamie Miller, a dedicated educator, a community servant and the founder and organizer of the Peach County Retired Educators Association (PCREA).

To this end, I am enclosing the application form and a description of the scholarship and the process for completing and submitting the scholarship application. We are asking your assistance in distributing this information to deserving students. Please also encourage them to submit a completed application packet.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and support of our efforts. If additional information is needed, please feel free to contact me or a representative listed herein.

Sincerely,

Dr. Josephine D. Davis, Chair
